

K-Love moves my mind off the problems of the day and reminds me what is important in life. I listen all the time. I even donate to the station to be certain to keep their work going for me and others like me who listen daily. What a travesty it would be to loose what I've grown to love and keeps me close to God daily. Please keep K-Love on the air!